

Key (correct answers)

1. What is the first step in the process of contacting SCAP with a referral to transitional housing? (Circle one choice)

- a) Phone call to the Carthage office
- b) Phone call to the on site case manager
- c) Completing the referral form
- d) Sending client to the local temporary housing with the form
- e) All of the above

2. Which of the following are qualified to stay at SCAP's transitional housing? (Circle all that apply)

- a) Persons with drug and/or alcohol addiction  $\times$  → do not have trained counselors
- b) Persons with criminal records  $\times$  → cannot have a felony for documented addictions
- c) Families with male children over the age of 13  $\times$  → Not required of them to do this (will not do this)
- d) Single men  $\otimes$  → NO
- e) Single women → can also be single women + children
- f) All of the above

3. What services does SCAP provide to its clients? (Circle all that apply)

- a) Helping locate permanent housing  $\times$  → refer out
- b) Daycare  $\times$  → refer out
- c) Transportation  $\times$  → refer out (their van is not running)
- d) Meals  $\times$  → refer to get meals (do not provide meals) → can provide food vouchers to those not eligible for food stamps
- e) Referrals to drug and mental health service providers  $\times$  → refer out
- f) All of the above

4. For what length of time may clients stay in SCAP's transitional housing? (Circle one choice)

- a) 3 months
  - b) 6 months
  - c) 1 year
  - d) 2 years
  - e) As long as the client needs, even if that period lasts longer than two years
- ↳ Depends on the person
→ Sabrina says about 15 months average is typical (when 2.5 yrs staying w/ the program)

5. Are persons who reside at SCAP's transitional housing required to pay rent? (Circle one choice)

- a) Yes, all residents are required to pay rent
- eh →  b) Yes, but only some residents are required to pay rent
- c) No, residents are not required to pay rent

↳ people can transition into paying rent, but won't be asked to reimburse back next. (ranges @ the moment) from $50 to $100